

Sock Metrics

Since the mission of The Joy of Sox® is to give joy to the homeless by giving them new socks here are some of the metrics involved in doing that.

243,570+ – Pairs of new socks given to the homeless since we started. Almost a quarter of a million pairs! Wow!

$45,435 – Value of new socks distributed in 2016

33,730 – Pairs of new socks distributed in 2016

30,816 – Pounds (15.41 tons) of new socks distributed since we started. That's about the same weight as 2½ adult African elephants, or 4 hippopotami, or 522 gray wolves!

2,094 – People who like us on Facebook (our goal 2,500+ in 2017)

247 – Cardboard boxes 16" x 16" x 16" used to pack socks in 2016

100's – Number of people from around the country that have been inspired to help the homeless with new socks

83.3 – Miles of our distributed socks if put end-to-end

63 – Shelters in the Philadelphia area that we helped

62 – Shelters in other states that we have helped

30 – The number of other states, plus Wash D.C., where we have sent socks

24 – We have received monetary donations from 24 different states

4 – Countries outside the USA where we have donated

socks (Mexico, Afghanistan, Uganda, UK)

3 – States that have passed resolutions about Valentine's Day as Socks for the Homeless Day (PA, NY, ND – 47 to go!)

2 – Universities that help with volunteers/interns (Villanova University, Cabrini University)

2 – Foreign countries that we received a monetary donation from: Norway and Israel

But the most important number isn't a number at all – it's YOU!

Thanks so very much to everyone who helps and supports our mission of giving joy to the homeless by giving them new socks, and our vision of being able to give new socks to every homeless person in America a few times every year!

We are making a positive impact on the lives of the homeless because of you!!
